

The Austrian tenor Stefan Reichmann studied at the Vienna Conservatory for Arts Opera and Operetta. As an Operetta Tenor he is a sought after guest at many houses in Germany, Austria, and Swizerland. He sang among others the leading roles in Operettas like: The Bird seller, The Beggar Student, the Bat, Vienna Blood, Countess Maritza and the Csárdás Princess.

Mr. Reichmann, as an Opera tenor is also very busy singing at the Carinthian Summer in Ossiach, the Luisenburg Festival in Wunsiedel, the Opera in Detmold, the Opera in Passau, the New Opera Vienna or the Theater an der Wien.

His repertoire includes Hans in Bartered Bride, Alfredo in La Traviata, Don Ottavio in Don Giovanni, Simon in The Last Supper and Florestan in Fidelio among others.